

Empowering people & organizations to overcome setbacks and transform failures into fuel for growth.

Having personally experienced the sting of failure, Kevin uses the experiences, lessons and skills learned to empower and equip your people with the tools and strategies to navigate failures, obstacles and challenges.

Together we can learn from mistakes, achieve breakthrough results and turn roadblocks into innovative solutions.

“Everyone loves a train wreck; and everyone also loves a good come-back story. In one dynamic speaker, Kevin is both.”

-Founder and Managing Principal, AB Consulting

From a dream life to an out-of-control opiate addiction; leading to armed bank robberies and 6 years in prison Now on a quest for redemption with a new PERSPECTIVE on the world around us Sharing this unique story Kevin shows us how coming back from failure, rising above expectations and living an amazing life are all possible, no matter what obstacles may stand in our path

Kevin

- is a Public Speaker & Consultant
- was a top producer in the Financial Services Industry
- had a blessed life financially and personally
- served 6 years in Prison for Armed Robbery
- has a uniquely inspirational and motivational story to tell

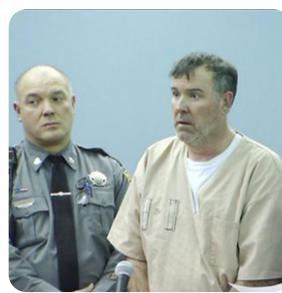

From a Country Club lifestyle as a top producing V.P. in Financial Services...

to multiple spinal reconstructive surgeries...

to opiate addiction; failed business ventures; financial ruin; suicidal ideations...

to a complete moral and ethical shutdown leading to his arrest on 2/14/2016 for Armed Bank Robbery...

ultimately to a prison cell for 6 years as Inmate # 413541

If you are looking for a dynamic speaker to draw clients to your meetings, or to deliver a one-of-a kind inspirational & motivational speech to your organization - Kevin has a unique perspective on the world and how we all live in it

Kevin's purpose and mission is to bring his story to your organization, company, group, team, or school. Through a journey of financial success and all the trappings that went along with it; to addiction and the total loss of everything; culminating in his arrest in 2016 - and spending six years in prison - Kevin has been given the gift of PERSPECTIVE and learned to use it in any situation in order to move forward with the best life has to offer.

An Unbelievable Story, a Unique Presentation

Finding Perspective

Overcoming Obstacles, Setbacks and Failures

- A speech chronicling the journey Kevin took from the top of the Financial Services Industry to addiction and the poor decisions he made on his descent to the brink of bankruptcy. Based on the years of research, counseling and consulting with experts, this keynote contains step by step processes for overcoming obstacles, setbacks and even failures in our personal and professional lives.
- A raw, honest account of his total collapse and the loss of any moral and ethical compass. From suicidal ideations, the massive amounts of narcotic pain medications, to the lies and manipulations that became commonplace in his daily life and to his family.
- A hard look at the events that led to committing armed bank robberies in January and February of 2016 and to a prison cell for six years.
- With PERSPECTIVE and OPTIMISM, Kevin shares how we can all live in a glass half-full world, and how we can all come through life's obstacles, in our personal and professional lives.
- Based on the years of research, counseling and consulting with experts, this keynote contains step by step processes for overcoming obstacles, setbacks and even failures in our personal and professional lives.

Other Topics & Themes

- A reaffirmation of just how special and unique each of us are
- Time is finite
- Optimism and Perspective
- Overcoming obstacles and difficulties
- A path of service
- Building a plan for success
- Concepts for living and coping with stress
- "Serenity NOW!" - using the concepts of the Serenity Prayer in daily life
- Radical Acceptance and the power of forgiveness
- Relative Depravity and other human psychology traits to watch out for
- The concept of Reciprocity and using it in business and personal relationships

We can customize presentations to your needs as an organization and the message you would like emphasized

For more visit our website:
www.kevinbakerpresents.com

Or via social media

For a consult call, please email us
kevin@kevinbakerpresents.com

@kevinbakerpresents

fb.com/kevinbakerpresents

@kevinwbakerorg

Kevin-w-Baker

About Kevin

Kevin is a former veteran of the Financial Services Industry. After leaving the corporate side as a top wholesaler in Retirement Income Planning, he then had a brief stint as a Financial Advisor.

Through several spinal reconstructive surgeries on his lower back, Kevin became addicted to opioid pain medications. Finally, in losing the long battle with addiction, now facing foreclosure and bankruptcy and with his moral/ethical compass damaged beyond comprehension, Kevin lost control.

In January 2016 and again just two weeks later, he committed armed robberies at a local bank.

Arrested on February 14, 2016, Kevin was sent prison. He ultimately plead guilty to two felony convictions of Robbery with a Dangerous Instrument: each conviction carrying a seven-year sentence. Kevin began his incarceration with the Connecticut Department of Corrections as Inmate #413541.

In his 6-year stay (with time off for good behavior) and trying to move beyond castigating himself for what was already written, Kevin dedicated himself to a life yet to live. In his journey through prison, he realized there is a choice - count the days behind the bars or MAKE THE DAYS COUNT.

With rigorous study, research, and self-inspection, along with significant support from family, close friends, counselors, the prison priest, and others; Kevin began to see a future still possible. He learned the power of PERSPECTIVE and how to harness its power. With perspective Kevin now looks at February 14, 2016, as a watershed date for him.

THE NEWS

"Police: West Hartford financial planner charged with two bank robberies."

Fox 61 News: Feb. 16, 2016

"7 Years In Prison For Financial Planner Turned Bank Robber."

Hartford Courant: Jan. 25, 2017

Keeping a "glass half-full" mentality, that date became not the worst day of his life but a new birth, a life-saving event and a second chance. The Connecticut State Police had saved his life that February 14th. Certainly, he would be dead and buried by springtime had they not.

He began to write and find wisdom of so many wonderful people in various books, educational programs and other media available to him in prison. The writings started to take shape and formulate the basis for several speech platforms and presentations.

Kevin now delivers his unique experience going from the top of the Financial Services Industry to a prison cell; and sharing the lessons he has learned to audiences all over the country. Now reunited with his family, he lives in West Hartford, CT and is making the best of every day he has been gifted.

Hartford Courant, Front Page; 2-14-2016

Recent Reviews

"So incredibly honored to have Kevin Baker share his unique story with our team yesterday! His journey of success to failure and back again is truly inspirational. If you're looking for a motivational speaker who will inspire your team with a powerful story, this is your guy."

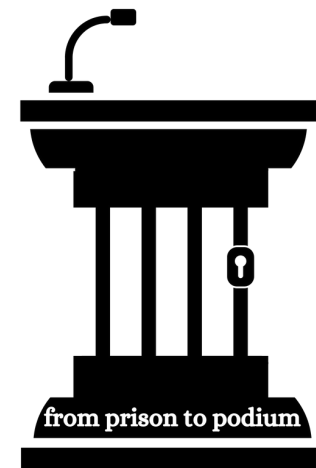

-Rebecca Blake, Principal HR Consulting Services, OneDigital

"Kevin, I'm so happy I made the ride to see your presentation first hand. Your presentation was fascinating and inspirational."

-Dale Marie Breault, Financial Advisor

"Thank you for inviting Kevin, his story was incredibly inspiring, and I thought his presentation was perfect. I could have listened to him speak all day!"

-Senior Business Development Executive in HR at OneDigital

kevinbakerpresents.com